Thesis: The Gospel effects our motivation for godly living as both the church gathered and the church scattered.

The love of Paul and his purpose for writing these instructions (vs. 14-15a).

Who we are, and who's we are, motivates us to do what we are called to do (vs. 15b).

A confessional hymn about Jesus (vs. 16).

1. He came in the flesh.
2. The Spirit raised Him from the dead, proving His claims to be the Son of God and Messiah.
3. His work was so great that it was known on a cosmic level.
4. He made it possible for all people to be saved.
5. Many have responded to this gospel of saving grace.
6. With his sacrificial work completed, Jesus was seated at the right hand of the father.
