Thesis: Paul gives the elders and the church a hope-filled warning to keep the instructions of the Lord, by the holy power of the Lord, to the glory of the Lord.

1. Hope-filled warning: God sees if we keep His instructions, all the way down to state of our hearts (vs. 21).

Application: Everyday grow in awe of the Lord, knowledge of His instructions, and obedience.

2. Hope-filled warning: God is a holy God who expects and empowers His people to be holy, especially those who lead His church (vs. 22-23).

Application: Everyday grow in awe of the Lord, knowledge of His instructions, and obedience.

3. Hope-filled warning: The glory of the Lord demands that judgment must come (vs. 25).

Application: Everyday grow in awe of the Lord, knowledge of His instructions, and obedience.
