Thesis: If we have a proper view of wealth, it can be an ally in the Christian life; but if we have an improper view it can become our greatest enemy.

1. Paul gives us three things to consider concerning wealth (vs. 17a-d):
 - a. Others

 - b. Ourselves

 - c. The true nature of wealth

2. God has a purpose for your wealth (vs. 17e-18):
 - a. To enjoy life (vs. 17e)

 - b. To help others (vs.18a.)

 - c. To reveal Christ (vs. 18b)

3. How you use your wealth now is foundational for the future (vs. 19).
