

Without A Resurrection, There Is No Hope

Mark 16:1-8

Thesis: If Christ dies and stays in the grave, all hope is lost; but since He has raised from the dead, we have hope that our future is secure.

1. Circumstances can make it easy to lose hope in the promises of God (vs. 1).
2. Physical obstacles cannot take away our hope in the plan of God (vs. 2-4).
3. "He is risen!" is the greatest message of hope in history (vs. 5-6).
4. We can have hope because God keeps His word (vs. 7-8).

Implications:

1. Christ is the hope the world needs.
2. If you have put your hope in anything besides Christ, you have no hope.
3. Christ's resurrection guarantees our resurrection.
